Why become a Trauma Distinction Surveyor?

- Make a difference by building quality capacity in evidence informed trauma care.
- Connect with other trauma champions and leaders.
- Be a change leader in shaping the future of trauma care in the health system.

Accreditation Canada's (AC) Trauma Distinction Program supports organizations on their journey towards excellence in trauma care.

AC has immediate opportunities for health care professionals who:

- Have extensive practical experience in trauma care.
- Are committed to improving quality of care for patients.

Join us in assessing organizations against Trauma Distinction standards of excellence and help us recognize those who stand out as leaders.

To learn more about this opportunity, join our online information session on June 26 2019, 2pm (EST). To register, email Surveyors@accreditation.ca

Be a part of something bigger than yourself and join the People-Powered health movement.
