ATLS

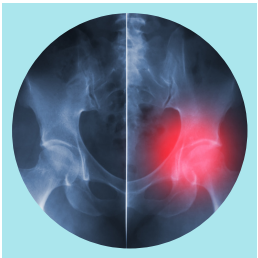
ADVANCED TRAUMA LIFE SUPPORT COURSE

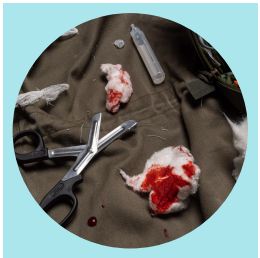
RURAL OFFERING
May 30/31, 2024
Athabasca Healthcare Centre (AB)

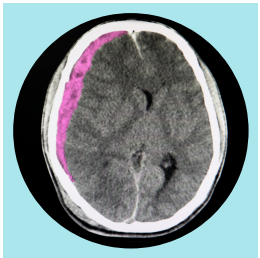
ASSESSMENT
Identify and demonstrate principles and concepts of primary and secondary patient assessments

INTERVENTION
Establish priorities for patient management and perform critical interventions

TRANSFER
Facilitate early identification and timely transfer of trauma patients to Level 1 or 2 facilities







DETAILS

ATLS is an internationally recognized continuing education course designed to teach a standardized and concise approach to the care of trauma patients within the "golden hour" or "period" where the greatest likelihood of death occurs.

Target Audience: Practicing Physicians, Residents, Medical Students (in final year) or Nurse Practitioners.
ONLY 16 seats available

Auditors may attend - recommended for advanced level practitioners (RNs/ACPs) but others are welcome.
ONLY 8 seats available

COST

01 Physician or NP
$1650

02 Resident of Med Student
$1500

03 Auditor (no certification)
$350

Lunch and Snacks Provided

Deadline to Register
May 3, 2024

Register by email or text:
Kristen.mackenzie@ahs.ca
780-213-0838